

Indiana's telephone privacy law should not be changed to allow any group access to our phone #'s. Since having my phone numbers included on the No Call List, I can eat dinner in peace with my family and friends. I can answer the phone on the first ring without wondering who is soliciting what now. Please do not consider allowing banking firms exemption from the no call list.